WARNO

Definition, Uses and Characteristics

•A Warning Order (WARNO) is a preliminary notice of an order or action which is to follow

•WARNOs help subordinate units and staffs prepare for new missions. They increase subordinates' planning time, provide details of the impending operation, and detail events that accompany preparation and execution.

•While a WARNO informs recipients of tasks they must do now or notifies them of possible future tasks, it however DOES NOT AUTHORIZE EXECUTION UNLESS SPECIFICALLY STATED.

•A WARNO does not have specific format however, the OPORD (5 Paragraph) format is a good template / guide, it may include the following information:

- The enemy situation and significant intelligence events
- The higher unit's mission
- Mission or tasks of the issuing headquarters
- The commander's intent statement
- Orders for preliminary actions, including intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance (ISR) operations
- Coordinating instructions e.g. estimated timelines, OPORD delivery
- Service and Support instructions, and special equipment needed, regrouping of transport, or preliminary unit movements.

4. SERVICE SUPPORT: Include CSS instructions and arrangements supporting the operations that are of priority interest to the platoon. Include changes to established SOPs or a previously issued order. Paragraph 4 is often prepared and issued by the PSG.

a. GENERAL: Reference the SOPs that govern the sustainment operations of the unit. Provide current and proposed company trains locations, casualty collection points, and routes to and from them.

b. MATERIAL AND SERVICES:

- (1) Supply. Include information on all classes of supply of interest to the platoon. When applicable, list constraints and limitations, specific operating hours, distribution methods or schedules and other information which alters the standard manner in which supplies are managed, controlled, handled, or distributed.
- (2) Transportation. Provide route limitations and traffic priorities by units, and schedule for service.
- (3) Services. Include information or instructions that prescribe the type of service available, designation and location of the facility and schedule for service.
- (4) Maintenance. Include any information that differs from the established SOP on maintenance of weapons and equipment.
- (5) Medical Evacuation. Identify procedures for evacuation of wounded if they differ from the SOP.

1. SITUATION: Provides information essential to the subordinate leader's understanding of the situation.

a. ENEMY FORCES: Refer to the overlay or sketch. Include pertinent intelligence provider by higher HQ and other facts and assumptions about the enemy. This analysis is stated as conclusion and address—

- (1) Disposition, composition, and strength.
- (2) Capabilities. A listing of what the enemy is able to do and how well.
- (3) Most probable course of action.

b. FRIENDLY FORCES: Provides information that subordinates need to accomplish their task.

- (1) Higher units. A verbatim statement of the higher commander's mission statement from paragraph 2 and concept of the operation statement from paragraph 3a.
- (2) Left unit's mission.
- (3) Right unit's mission.
- (4) Forward unit's mission.
- (5) Mission of the unit in reserve or following.
- (6) Units in support or reinforcing the higher unit.

c. ATTACHMENTS and DETACHMENTS: When not shown under Task Organization, list here or in an annex, units attached or detached from the platoon, together with the effective times.

2. MISSION: Provide a clear concise statement of the task to be accomplished and the purpose for doing it (WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, AND WHY). The leader derives the mission from the mission analysis.

Euripides (/ j œr' i p i d i z /; Ancient Greek: Εὐριπίδης Euripídēs, pronounced [eu.ri:.pi.de:s]; c. 480 – c. 406 BC) was a tragedian of classical Athens. Along with Aeschylus and Sophocles, he is one of the three ancient Greek tragedians for whom any plays have survived in full. Some ancient scholars attributed ninety-five plays to him, but the Suda says it was ... Deinosuchus was a large crocodyliform that lived from 82 million years ago up until the end-Cretaceous extinction event began. Its main competitors as a large predator may have included sharks, marine reptiles like Mosasaurs, theropods like the Tyrannosaurs and other Deinosuchus. Its main prey were sea turtles and dinosaurs. Deinosuchus is an extinct relative to Crocodyles ...
