"Raavan is one of the most complex, violent, passionate and fulfilled men of all time." A man who will love without reward and kill without remorse. He suffers a lot, and usually reacts to this suffering with anger and so -called. The fact that he was extremely talented, made the impact of his anger that is much more written. This is probably the darkest book I already wrote ... I hope readers enjoy the book," he added. Betraying Raavan's life, from his birth at the time when abducts Hindu goddess Sita, the Book is the third portion of SĀ 'Ā Rie Ram Chandra of the author after "Ram: Scion of Ikshvaku" and "Sita: Warrior of Mithila." Third touches on Raavan's life, before all of the stories, they merge from the fourth book in a story," explains the author in the introduction of the book. For the initiates, the banker author in his writing uses A narrative technique called "hyperlink", also known as "multilinear narrative". "In such narrative, many characters; and a connection to them," he writes in the book. Tripathi is credited with harsh penning of sales books (the shiva trilogy) in the story of Indian publication. (Samir Jana/HT File Photo) Updated on Mar 20, 2020 06:58 AM IST Hindustan Times, Delhi | ByHT Correspondent Author Amish Tripathi, who has written modern-age literary marvels such as The Shiva Trilogy (Immortals of Meluha, Secret of the Nagas), The Ramchandra series (Sita - Warrior of Mithila, and more recently Raavan - Enemy of Aryavarta), has announced his divorce from his wife of 20 years, Preeti Vyas. The authoreĀĀĀs retelling of popular mythological texts found instant with the youth in the country with several copies being pre-booked as soon as the new title is announced. The popular author took to Twitter to make this personal announcement and asking for time away from media glare. While the divorce decree was passed by the court in February this year, Tripathi has now made an official statement on Twitter. He also requested that his announcement be treated his ĀĀĀonly and final public comment on this matterĀĀĀ.Titled ĀĀĀPersonal AnnouncementĀĀĀ, TripathieĀĀĀs tweet reads: ĀĀĀWith sadness and humility I am making a personal announcement. My wife of over 20 years, Preeti Vyas and I, had filed for divorce in 2019, and the court has passed the divorce decree in February 2020. The divorce was by mutual consent.ĀĀĀThe primary concern for both Preeti and me will remain our young son, Neel. We have kept him out of the media spotlight till now, and I request that you respect the privacy of both our families, as we navigate this new phase in our lives.ĀĀĀ ĀĀĀĀI continue to respect Preeti as a wonderful mother to our son and a good friend to me. The nature of our relationship may have changed, but the regard and dignity at the foundation of it has not.ĀĀĀĀĀĀNormally, in public, I largely speak of my work, and rarely about my private life. This statement has been issued since many were asking me questions on this subject. I would be grateful for your indulgence in respecting my request that this be treated as my only and final public comment on this matter. -Amish Tripathi.ĀĀĀ- with inputs from ĀĀNSFollow more stories on Facebook and Twitter SHARE THIS ARTICLE ON Close Story Raavan: Enemy of Aryavarta (Westland), the third book in Amish TripathieĀĀĀs Ram Chandra series, is out.
